

Chapter Lead in Wholesale Banking AI

Join a forward-looking team at Danske Bank where we are building and deploying agentic AI solutions across the bank—creating something new that can fundamentally change how work gets done and how we serve our clients.

We focus on business-driven use cases that solve real challenges and deliver measurable outcomes—boosting productivity, improving quality, and creating time for our colleagues to provide even better service to Danske Bank's clients.

It's a rare opportunity to help drive innovation, shape our AI strategy, and build something new and remarkable with outsized impact—while bringing end users along on the latest developments in the world of AI.

As Chapter Lead you will work closely with end users, get hands-on exposure to the major GenAI providers and their latest developments, and collaborate in a set-up split between Denmark and India—an environment designed for learning fast and building at scale.

Furthermore, you will;

- Lead and mentor a diverse team of developers specialising in AI, agentic workflows and machine learning.
- Dedicate time to hands-on development, working on innovative solutions and AI-powered tools and agentic flows.
- Drive the skill development of team members in areas such as AI, agentic flows and protocols.
- Provide technical guidance to AI engineers and full-stack developers, creating a culture of knowledge sharing and collaboration
- Collaborate with wide group of stakeholders to drive innovation and deliver business value
- Stay up to date with the latest trends in AI and apply them to solve complex business challenges

What we imagine you bring

- Solid industry experience in software engineering
- Leadership experience, with experience in mentoring and developing technical teams
- Experience with building agentic AI solutions and/or machine learning development.
- Strong problem-solving skills and the ability to develop innovative solutions for complex problems
- Strong communication and collaboration skills, with the ability to inspire and lead teams across diverse locations.
- A proactive, self-driven mindset, with the ability to perform both independently and as part of a team

What we offer

Danske Bank supports a high degree of workplace flexibility. Our team is currently using a hybrid working model, where we work at least 3 days a week in the office.

You will also benefit from a highly attractive benefits package offering health and dental insurance, pension, phone and other benefits. You will have flexible work hours, with 6 weeks of vacation and 5 care days to ensure your work-life balance.
