

Sales Manager in FX e-Distribution

Are you passionate about driving innovation in the financial sector and building strong client relationships? Danske Bank is seeking a forward-thinking and dynamic Sales Manager to join our FX e-Distribution team.

About the role

As Sales Manager in the FX e-Distribution team, you will play a key role in developing and selling our digital foreign exchange platforms and tools. This role involves working with clients across all segments and markets, ensuring that our FX e-offerings meet their diverse needs.

You will be responsible for managing projects related to our FX e-products and collaborating with stakeholders to ensure their success. This position is based at Danske Bank's headquarters in Copenhagen, where you will work alongside our FX Sales team – our most important stakeholder – to ensure seamless collaboration and alignment.

Key responsibilities include:

Driving sales of digital FX platforms and tools to both existing and new Danske Bank customers.

- Analyzing the competitive landscape in the local market and identifying opportunities for further development.
- Collaborating closely with our development teams to create innovative solutions and introduce them to the market.
- Partnering with different parts of our organization to promote and sell new digital FX offerings.
- Managing relationships with internal and external stakeholders to maintain a strong network.

What we are looking for

To succeed in this role, we are looking for someone who:

- Has great interpersonal skills and the ability to build and maintain strong relationships across teams and with clients.
- Is skilled in stakeholder management and thrives in a collaborative environment.
- Possesses strong organizational skills, enabling you to manage multiple priorities effectively.
- Has an interest in innovation and new developments within the banking sector.
- Knowledge of the foreign exchange market is an advantage but not a requirement. As well as experience from Treasury and/or Cash Management.
- Holds a bachelor's or master's degree, which does not need to be in finance.
- Speaks fluent Danish and English.

We welcome candidates with diverse perspectives and backgrounds. If you are curious, forward leaning and passionate about innovation and customer interaction, we encourage you to apply. This role is particularly well-suited for individuals who value teamwork, enjoy thinking creatively, and thrive in a structured yet dynamic environment

Why join us?

This is a unique opportunity to work at the forefront of FX innovation in a leading financial institution. In this role, you will have the chance to make a real impact by driving new developments in the FX sector while working with a talented and supportive team.

You will also benefit from being part of a Nordic team, collaborating with colleagues across multiple regions and markets to deliver world-class solutions.
