Tax Evasion Prevention Internship

Are you ready to play your part in the prevention of financial crime? Would you like to gain hands-on experience in a dynamic and collaborative environment while contributing to Danske Bank's efforts to prevent tax evasion? If yes, apply today to be our next Tax Evasion Prevention Intern.

About the department
Our Anti-bribery, Corruption & Tax Evasion team is part of 1st Line Financial Crime, playing a critical role in assessing risks across Danske Bank. We work closely with various areas of the business to ensure compliance and integrity in all operations. The team is based primarily in Copenhagen, where six team members collaborate to drive impactful changes.

Joining our team means becoming part of a group that values collaboration and innovation. Together, we work on key projects that promote compliance and mitigate financial crime risks. With a supportive culture and a commitment to excellence, we aim to drive effective changes within one of Denmark's largest financial institutions.

Your role and responsibilities
As a Tax Evasion Prevention Intern, you will play a part in ensuring Danske Bank's compliance efforts are robust and effective. You will work closely with experienced colleagues to gain in-depth knowledge of tax law and contribute to essential projects.

- Implement controls for the prevention of the facilitation of tax evasion together with relevant areas in the business
- Assist the Tax Evasion team in providing specialist advice in cases with unusual behaviour regarding tax evasion
- Assist with risk assessments of products, services, processes, customers, and third parties concerning tax evasion
- Support the implementation of policies and procedures relating to anti-tax evasion

About you
We are looking for a driven and open-minded individual with a willingness to learn and grow within the field of tax prevention. You will have an outstanding opportunity to enhance your skills and gain valuable insights into Danish and international tax legislation as well as valuable insight into how an organisation operates.

- Enrolled in a bachelor's programme in Taxation at Københavns Professionshøjskole or equivalent
- Available for an internship from February 2027 to June 2027
- As English is the working language, professional proficiency in spoken and written English is required.
- Curious and are a strong team player

Why join us?
At Danske Bank, we believe in supporting our people to reach their full potential. You will be paired with a mentor who will assist you during your internship, providing you with all the necessary resources and support to thrive. This is your opportunity to gain practical experience, strengthen your expertise, and contribute to meaningful work that benefits society.

Apply now by submitting your CV, application and documentation confirming your enrolment in the programme.
The internship is unpaid.
