

Investor Relations Officer

Investor Relations Officer

Are you someone who enjoys working with numbers, understanding businesses and turning complex information into clear messages? This Investor Relations Officer role offers a strong starting point for a career in investor relations and financial communication. You will gain broad exposure to financial results, strategic priorities, and market developments while working with experienced colleagues.

What you will be doing

You will work closely with our experienced Investor Relations team, gaining meaningful responsibility from the outset whilst receiving guidance and feedback to develop your skills. You will collaborate with colleagues across Finance, Strategy, Communications and senior management support functions. Given our global investor base, you will get to engage and work with international investors and help prepare analysis and presentations for roadshows and global conferences.

- Support preparation of quarterly and annual results materials and presentations
- Analyse financial performance, market trends and peer developments
- Contribute to accurate communication for investors and analysts
- Prepare background material for investor meetings and conferences
- Maintain investor relations data, calendars and contact information
- Take part in projects that improve investor relations quality

About you

- Completed master's degree in finance, economics, business or accounting

- Strong interest in financial markets, companies and corporate strategy
- Solid analytical skills and confidence working with Excel and AI tools
- Clear written and verbal communication skills in English
- Attention to detail and commitment to producing high-quality work
- Structured and collaborative working style with ability to manage multiple tasks
- Curiosity, sound judgement and enthusiasm for learning

Relevant student work, internships or project experience are an advantage, but we do not expect you to have done investor relations before.

What we offer you

You can expect significant growth opportunities and a strong introduction to investor relations. You will work in a supportive, professional team environment with opportunities to build a broad internal and external network. We offer hybrid working with 3 to 4 days per week in the office to promote collaboration and knowledge sharing.

Are you ready for the next step?

We would love to hear from you! Please submit your CV, academic transcript and a short application explaining your interest in investor relations. If you have questions please contact, Head of Group Investor Relations, Claus Ingar Jensen at clauj@danskebank.dk. The application deadline is 11. October 2026.

We look forward to hearing from you!
