Being a Graduate in Customer & Corporate Advisory

We aim to be the best-performing financial services group in the Nordics accelerated by technology, data and AI.

The Customer & Corporate Advisory area focuses on delivering tailored financing and advisory solutions to support customers' business growth and everyday financial needs. By understanding customer needs and market conditions, advisors help client manage risks, invest and grow sustainably.

This area requires strong analytical skills, commercial awareness and a customer-focused mindset. You also need a basic understanding of financial products, credit principles and advisory work, combined with clear communication skills and a willingness to learn.

Who you are

Collaboration. Ownership. Passion. Courage. These are the values that guide us in being at our best – and that we imagine you share with us.

We are looking for you who:

- Proactively seek challenges and learning opportunities
- Thrive in ambiguity and change and applies critical thinking
- Are excited about AI and new technologies to enable new ways of working
- Understand importance of customer centric value creation
- Actively seek feedback and improvement

To be a qualified candidate for the Graduate programme, you have:

- A Master's degree ready by 1 September 2026
- A maximum of 2 years of work experience after Master's degree
- Excellent English skills
